

WEST COAST DRIVER'S CHALLENGE

The New Zealand Fire Service holds their annual West Coast Driver's Challenge at Hokitika airport every year.

Our secondary runway is closed for the day to allow these drivers to test their ability to manoeuvre and control these heavy vehicles.

These exercises help the Fire Service maintain their high levels of staff and public safety as they carry out their fire-fighting and rescue service.

